GUIDELINES FOR INVESTMENTS
ROCHESTER-GENESEE REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY

SECTION 1 TITLE

These Guidelines shall be known as the “Guidelines for Investments of the Rochester-Genesee Regional Transportation Authority”, or the “Investment Guidelines.”

SECTION 2 PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

1. These Investment Guidelines set forth the policy and practices for the investment of the liquid assets of the Authority in compliance with Public Authorities Law Sections 2856, 2890, 2925, 1299-gg(4) and 1299-ll, and Office of the State Comptroller Investment Guidelines for Public Authorities and State Agencies at 2NCYRR Part 201.
2. The purpose of these guidelines is to ensure the safety, liquidity, yield, and legality of all investments. Safety concerns the preservation of capital and the protection of investment principal and is the primary investment objective. Liquidity concerns the ease of conversion of investments into cash, with minimal, if any, loss, to meet the operating requirements and emergency purposes of the Authority. Yield concerns the generation of income from investments to assist the Authority in meeting operating expenses. Legality refers to compliance with all statutes and regulations governing the investment of Authority assets.

SECTION 3 DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

1. The Board of Commissioners has delegated the formulation of the investment policy to the Finance/Investment Committee. In addition to formulating the investment policy, the functions to be performed by the Finance/Investment Committee shall include, but not be limited to, evaluating the investment program by:
  - a. Monitoring the system of internal controls
  - b. Verifying relevant matters relating to the securities purchased or held as collateral at least semi-annually and on an unscheduled basis;
  - c. Determining that the investment results are consistent with the objectives of the Board of Commissioners as expressed in this policy; and
  - d. Reviewing any independent audits of the investment program.

SECTION 4 DEFINITIONS

1. “Funds” means all monies and other financial resources available for investment by the Authority, including money held in reserve or sinking fund and money not required for immediate use or disbursement. Funds shall not include pension funds, which are separately administered pursuant to State and Federal law of funds in plans established under Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code.
2. “Board” means the Board of Commissioners.

SECTION 7 WRITTEN CONTRACTS AND PROCEDURES

1. The Authority shall enter into written contracts pursuant to which investments are made, unless the Authority shall by resolution determine that a written contract is not practical or that there is not a regular business practice of written contracts with respect to a specific investment transaction, in which case the Authority shall adopt procedures covering such investment or transaction. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, written contracts are required for Certificates of Deposit, Time Deposits, Demand Deposits, Deposits in “Money Market” accounts Repurchase Agreements and custodial undertakings. All purchases will be confirmed in writing to the Chief Financial Officer of the Authority, or designee.

Collateral shall be delivered to the Authority or a Custodian with which the Authority has entered into a Security/Custodial Agreement.
2. FDIC insurance and collateral shall not be required for the purchase of direct obligations of the United States, the State, or for the purchase of obligations of Federal Agencies the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the United States Government.
3. FDIC insurance and collateral shall not be required for securities purchased under a Repurchase Agreement of direct United States Government obligations.

4. Collateral held by the Authority, or its agent shall be valued at its current value either on a regularly traded money market, or on a stock market exchange. The valuation of such collateral shall equal the value of the investment plus accrued interest, and shall be monitored at least monthly. The collateral for investments shall be limited to obligations having the same ratings as or higher ratings than the ratings of the obligations permitted for direct investment by the Authority under this policy. The collateral shall be segregated and Authority's name and shall be in the custody of the Authority for third-party Custodian. The Authority shall not accept a pledge of proportionate interest in a pool of collateral. There shall be a written custodial agreement which, among other things, specifies the circumstances under which collateral may be substituted and provides that the Custodian is holding the securities solely for the benefit of the Authority.
5. All investments and collateral shall be controlled and managed by the Chief Financial Officer or designee, and shall, if practicable, be deposited and secured in fire proof, or other safe locations.
6. Except where such an arrangement is not done in the ordinary course of business for investment transactions of the particular kind, payment of Funds shall only be made against the delivery of collateral, or other acceptable form of security, the delivery of government obligations when such obligations are purchased outright, or the delivery of the underlying securities when a repurchase agreement is involved. With respect to the purchase of obligations of United States, New York State, or other governmental entities in which monies may be invested, the interests of the Authority payment shall be conditioned on the physical delivery of purchased securities to the Federal Reserve System account of the Authority's Custodian. Custodians must have prior authorization from the Authority to deliver obligations and collateral. Delivery of obligations sold by the Authority shall only be made upon receipt of funds. Custodian shall be required to report periodically as appropriate on transactions involving the Authority and must have the written consent of the Authority to transfer collateral. Telephonic communications should be confirmed in writing within a commercially acceptable period of time. Electronic communications (i.e. "e mail") shall be considered as written communications.
7. The security/custodial agreement shall provide that eligible securities are being pledged to secure Authority deposits or investment or, in the case of a Repurchase Agreement, the seller's repurchase obligation, together with agreed upon interest, if any, and any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of the collection of all amounts owed the Authority upon default. It shall also provide the conditions under which the securities may be sold, presented for payment, substituted or released and the events which will enable the Authority to exercise its rights against the pledged securities. In the event that the securities are not registered or inscribed in the name of the Authority, such securities shall be delivered in a form suitable for transfer or with an assignment to the Authority or its Custodian (which shall not be an agent of the party with whom the Authority enters into a Repurchase Agreement).

The custodial agreement shall provide that the securities held by the bank or trust company, or agent of and custodian for the Authority, will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the Custodian and will not, in any circumstances be commingled with or become part of the backing of any other deposit or other liabilities.

The agreement should also describe that the Custodian shall confirm the receipt, substitution or release of the securities. The agreement shall provide for the frequency or revaluation of eligible securities and for the substitution of securities when a change in the rating of a security may cause ineligibility. Such agreement shall include all provisions, and the Authority shall take all actions, necessary to provide the Authority title to or a first-priority perfected interest in the securities.

8. In the event the market value of the collateral is less than 99% of the value of the original investment plus all capitalized and accrued interest, the entity providing the collateral will be required to immediately deliver additional collateral to the Custodian in order to be in compliance with these guidelines. Failure of the entity providing the collateral to correct this situation within one (1) business day following notice by the Authority or its Custodian will result in such entity being held in default; and, all further investment activity with that entity will be suspended until the default is resolved.
