Spidey's Gone; RTS Buses Back to Normal Schedules; Lilac Festival on Tap

RTS buses to resume normal schedules early Friday morning; RTS Unveils Festival Website

Regional Transit Service (RTS) today announced that buses will return to normal schedules as of approximately 4:30 a.m. Friday, May 10, with today's conclusion of The Amazing Spider-Man 2 filming. In addition, the highly popular Where's My Bus? feature, which provides real-time, GPS-based bus location and stop times for customers via text or email, will be fully operational once again. The service had been temporarily suspended because of the extent of detours needed due to the closure of large sections of Main Street to accommodate filming.

The hustle and bustle will continue for RTS, however, as it unveils a new website with robust information for customers seeking transportation to Rochester's extensive lineup of summer festivals and special events, including the annual Lilac Festival that begins this weekend. Those interested in seeking a convenient, hassle-free, low-cost ride to the festival of their choice can visit rgta.com/festivals for detailed information on routes and times.
